

IWORDS Global Ltd.
27 Old Gloucester Street
London, WC1N 3AX
Website: www.iwordsglobal.com
Email: translations@iwordsglobal.com

Who are we?

IWORDS Global is a social entrepreneurship dedicated to supporting human rights, development, and relief stakeholders in mobilizing resources, generating new evidence, designing results-oriented programmes, evaluating their work and developing and delivering high-quality information about their work. We have worked with clients in over 120 countries, with an emphasis on organizations focused on gender equality, sexual and reproductive health and rights, and the achievement of the Sustainable Development Goals.

Development and delivery of high-quality information: how can we help?

Our professional team of native and seasoned linguists works in close collaboration with our institutional development experts, to offer the following services:*

- Translation—Our main language working pairs include English, Spanish, French, Portuguese, and Arabic. Other language combinations are also available upon request.
- Transcription
- Copy-editing
- Desktop publishing and design
- Infographics
- Typesetting
- Proofreading
- Interpretation (English-Spanish)

*Our linguistic and design solutions are offered as stand-alone services or as part of institutional development processes such as evaluation, resource mobilization, strategic planning, or research initiatives.

Why us?

- We understand that language is inherently political and all of our linguistic choices have implications of one sort or another. Therefore, we ensure that our linguistic and design services consider gender transformative approaches and inclusion.
- We use a reader-centred approach, ensuring that our language choices match the specificities of final audiences.
- We develop client-tailored glossaries.
- We guide our work based on the recommendations of authoritative linguistic bodies.
- Our translation services exceed our clients' expectations because our work procedure is in the hands of native and specialized linguists, as well as thematic experienced reviewers and proofreaders.
- Our quality assurance procedure is thorough and detailed, aiming to detect and correct any remaining issues prior to our delivery.

Our experience

Since our foundation, we have delivered the following statistics:

- Over 30 international, regional and local NGOs, international agencies, and social entrepreneurship served with copy-editing, proofreading, translation, and e-content development services.
- Specialized translation and editing of over 15 million words.
- Development, copy-editing, and design of over 20 guidelines/toolkits on technical issues (human rights, development, sexual and reproductive health).

Some of our clients include:

The voice of our clients

MSI Regional Director—West Africa and Latin America

'IWORDS has always provided very good customer service to MSI—the company has provided very fast turnaround on both French and Spanish translations, even when presented urgently at the last minute, and whether large or small. The company has helped us out of many difficult situations when we were up against the clock. They are easy to reach and always concerned whether we are happy with the quality; they have been happy to work with our glossary and lexicon in order to continuously improve.'

Associate Director of Programmes/Safe Abortion and Community-Based Programmes—International Planned Parenthood Federation (IPPF/WHR)

'IPPF/WHR has been extremely pleased with the translation work done by IWORDS. From translating programmatic documents to communications materials, the quality of IWORDS' work has been excellent.'

Programme Associate, Learning, Monitoring and Evaluation—International Women's Health Coalition

'In our experience, IWORDS is a reliable, timely, and effective translation consultancy for our needs at IWHC. They are quick to address requests via email, and turn around translations in a timely manner, with willingness to respond to urgent requests when they arise, with transparent communication. Among our partners to whom we send these translated documents, in Spanish, Portuguese, and French, we have not had any confusion or miscommunication arise, thus demonstrating IWORDS' quality language and content-specific translation services.'

Project Administrator, Sustainable Networks (SIFPO2)—IPPF

'I have been using IWORDS Global for our team's translation work recently and have been impressed with the quality of the translation work and the quick turnaround they have been able to provide. They are quick to respond and reply to enquiries and have proved to be incredibly trustworthy in their approach and delivery of the work promised. I am very happy with the service they provide.'

Get a free quote: translations@iwordsglobal.com